DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendments was given in a telephone interview with Jeffrey Proehl on 9/19/2005.

Drawings

2. Reference numbers 34, 38, and 52 need to be added to Figure 2.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-8 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claim 1 is allowable for defining 3 compartments, including a base compartment for the purpose of storing an antiseptic pad, on a razor handle.

Mondo et al (U.S Patent No. 5,287,624) teaches the use of a base compartment within a handle, but fails to teach the use of said base compartment for storing any type of object or substance.

Howe (U.S Patent No. 4,753,006) teaches two compartments located within the sides of a razor for the purpose of holding shaving substances, however the shaving substances are dispensed through the base of the razor handle therefore the apparatus does not allow a user to store an antiseptic pad within the base of the handle.

Rosenzweig (U.S Patent No. 2,632,446) teaches the dispensing of an antiseptic from the base of a razor handle. However, the antiseptic dispensing apparatus within the razor handle uses the entire razor handle instead of just a base compartment to store the antiseptic.

Hufnagle (U.S Patent No. 4,994,068) teaches an antiseptic pad in the base compartment of a lancet, but a lancet is not related to a razor.

While Mondo, Howe, Rosenzweig, and Hufnagle are considered combinable it would be hindsight to provide the basic structure for a razor handle from Mondo and Howe, add an antiseptic element set forth by Rosenzweig and make said antiseptic element an antiseptic pad as set forth in Hufnagle.

Claims 2-8 are dependent upon claim 1 and are therefore allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
